Re: Natural Habitat
Walter Camp, Owner

To whom it may concern:

Desert Mountain Properties is an 8,000 acre, high end, master planned, mixed use, predominantly residential and recreational community situated in Scottsdale, Arizona. Homes, parks, golf courses and parkways within the community are lushly landscaped to enhance and preserve the natural desert beauty. Walter Camp, as an individual, and Natural Habitat, as a company, has been instrumental in Desert Mountain's endeavor to ensure the landscape integrity of the entire project. Most recently Natural Habitat has provided landscaping services for the following::

The Haciendas, which has 38 homes starting at about $1.5, along with lush greenbelts, a pool, spa and fitness center.

Cintarosa which features custom home lots starting around $2 million, spacious greenbelts and site specific amenities.

Chiricahua Pass, a long and scenic multi-tract roadway through the beautiful Saguaro Forest, ending at Cintarosa.

Parcel 3 which features 21 semi-custom homes priced in excess of $4 million.

Natural Habitat has been our number one choice for landscaping services since it was established in 2003. Project costs usually range from about $200,000 to $1,500,000 each and there are currently several projects underway. Natural Habitat has performed excellent and timely service for us and we look forward to continuing our long term relationship.
